18. [REDACTED] LIAISON Accompanied the Director and Tony Lapham, General Counsel, to a session with the Attorney General, at which a number of matters were discussed, including roles in the Executive Branch on statutory charters, dealings with the House International Relations Subcommittee on International Organizations, and the interest of the House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct in information in our possession but of special interest to the Department of Justice. Decisions were made on how to deal with all three of these issues.
